2010 Hirsch Vineyard Pinot Noir, Sonoma Coast
"Shows the power and finesse of this great vineyard. The cherry, persimmon, cola and baking spice flavors have the exotically feral notes of chamomile, game and mushrooms so typical of this vineyard and the Fort Ross area. So beautiful and deft now, it's hard not to pop the cork, but this Pinot will age well for at least 10 years."

Wine Spectator — Issue: September 30, 2011 — Score: 92

2007 Cabernet Sauvignon, Napa Valley
"Plump, ripe and juicy, with complex blackberry, plum and licorice flavors. Full-bodied, fresh and lively, ending with tannins that have a pleasant earthy edge and a measure of structure. Drink now through 2019. 500 cases made." –JL

Wine Spectator — Issue: November 15, 2013 — Score: 90

2010 Cabernet Sauvignon, Diamond Mountain District, Napa Valley
"Firm, with chewy tannins, this delivers a dense, rustic mix of crushed rock and dark and red berry, gaining depth and fanning out on the finish where the flavors become more nuanced and detailed. Needs time. Best from 2015 through 2025. 250 cases made." –JL

Wine Spectator — Issue: July 31, 2013 — Score: 92

2010 Chardonnay Carneros, Hudson Vineyard
"Opening with a burst of intense, vibrant pear, peach and cedary oak, this maintains its focus and balance. Turns elegant and refined on the finish, providing a graceful aftertaste. Drink now through 2019. 320 made. –JL

Wine Spectator — Issue: July 31, 2014 — Score: 92

2012 Chardonnay Russian River Valley, Spinnaker
"Offers generous layers of ripe fig, apricot, citrus peel flavors, with measured smoky, toasty oak. Most impressive for the sweet, ripe fruit flavors. Drink now. 442 cases made." –JL
